Scope of Title IX Under the New Regulations

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

7

WHO are the parties involved?

- Complainant: an individual who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment
- Respondent: an individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment
- Title IX Coordinator: schools must designate a Title IX Coordinator to coordinate all the school's efforts to comply with the Title IX Regulations
- Investigator: individual(s) who investigate(s) allegations sexual harassment made in a formal complaint and create(s) investigative report; may be Title IX Coordinator, but not in all circumstances (more on this later)
- Decision-maker: individual(s) who make(s) a determination of responsibility based on investigative report, evidence, statements, and any hearings as to alleged sexual harassment made in a formal complaint; cannot be the same person(s) as the Title IX Coordinator or Investigator (more on this later)
- Appeals Decision-maker: individual(s) who review(s) the appeal of any determination of responsibility; cannot be the same person(s) as the Title IX Coordinator, Investigator, or original Decision-maker (more on this later)

34 CFR §§ 106.8, 106.30(a), 106.46(b)(5)-(8)

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

8

WHAT does Title IX Cover?

- "Sexual harassment": covers three classifications of sex-based discriminatory conduct:
  1. Quid pro quo: employee offers some kind of aid/benefit/service in exchange for unwelcome sexual conduct
  2. Any incident of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, as defined in the Clery Act / Violence Against Women Act
  3. Unwelcome conduct that is:
    - Based on sex;
    - So severe AND pervasive AND objectively offensive;
    - That it effectively DENIES a person equal access to educational program or activity.

---

---

---

---

Example 1:

A fifth grader tells her teacher that a student in her class is trying to touch her chest and her private areas, and saying things to her like "I want to get in bed with you" and "I want to feel your boobs." The student says the classmate also put a door stop in his pants and tried to rub up against her in the hallway. This kind of behavior occurred nearly every day over several months. The student tells her teacher this is why her grades have dropped, that she is always nervous and anxious in school now. The girl's mother also met several times with the principal to discuss the behavior.

---

---

Example 2:

A male student in seventh grade is the target of bullying by football players. On multiple occasions, the players pushed the student against a locker, ridicule him, threaten him, and say things like he "would be better off dead" or that he "should commit suicide." Given what is said to the student, teachers suspect that he is the target of bullying because he is perceived as "not masculine enough" and not presenting himself in the same way as other male students at the school. On one occasion, the student was bullied in a classroom, and when he asked to leave the classroom to go to the guidance counselor's office, his teacher told him that he "needed to stop being a baby."

Example 3:

A female high school student is the only female student on the school's wrestling team. Over the course of about three years that the student was on the wrestling team, the (male) coach made the following comments:

- When the female student was wrestling with a male student, the coach said to him, "How does it feel knowing that's probably one of the only women you'll ever have on top of you?" Another time, while the same two students were wrestling, the coach said to the male student, "she'll be the only girl you'll touch."
- To the female student directly, the coach said, "You'll have to be a 'boy' on the team," at least twice. He also said that she would have to have "strap-ons" [referring to prosthetic penises] at least four times.
- The coach asked the student if she was having her menstrual cycle during a wrestling match, because he could see her "pad" through her singlet, and then laughed about it with another coach.

WHEN does Title IX Apply?

- "Actual notice": Title IX applies when certain individuals have notice—either informally through verbal or written report, or via a formal written complaint by a Complainant—of sexual harassment or allegations of sexual harassment. These individuals include:
  - Title IX Coordinator; or
  - Any school official with authority to institute corrective measures on school's behalf; or
    - "The mere ability or obligation to report sexual harassment or to inform a student about how to report sexual harassment, or having been trained to do so, does not qualify an individual as one who has authority to institute corrective measures"
  - Any employee of elementary/secondary school (K-12 ONLY).
- IF a Formal Complaint is filed, there are additional temporal restrictions:
  - At the time of filing, Complainant MUST be participating in or attempting to participate in the school's education program or activity

WHERE does Title IX Apply?

- "Educational Programs or Activities": includes—
  - Locations, events, or circumstances over which the school exercised substantial control over both the respondent AND the context in which the sexual harassment occurs; and
  - Any building owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by a postsecondary institution.
- "Against a person in the United States":
  - Sexual harassment that occurs abroad does not fall within the purview of Title IX and its implementing Regulations.
  - BUT schools can choose to respond to sexual misconduct that occurs abroad via alternative means in Student/Employee Codes of Conduct.

Examples of "Educational Programs & Activities"

- In the hallway between classes?
- On the school bus?
- At the convenience store across the street from school, where students work an after-school job?
- At an "away" volleyball tournament held at another district's school?
- On a field trip to a museum?
- At a student's house?
- A student's Instagram page?
- The marching band trip, on a cruise ship to the Caribbean?

HOW Do Schools Fulfill Their Title IX Obligations?

General Response: A school with actual knowledge of sexual harassment in an education program or activity against a person in the United States must respond promptly and in a manner that is not deliberately indifferent.

- "Deliberately indifferent": clearly unreasonable in light of known circumstances
- Must treat complainants and respondents equitably
- Must offer supportive measures to an alleged victim
- Must not impose disciplinary measures against Respondent until full grievance process carried out (more on this later)

Maintaining other Legal Obligations: While responding to Title IX allegations, schools should not compromise other rights including:

- First Amendment: e.g., freedom of speech
- Fifth/Fourteenth Amendments: due process rights
- FERPA requirements
- Title VII obligations
- Parents' rights to act on behalf of minor child
- State laws and regulations
  - BUT if State law conflicts with federal law, then federal law preempts State law

HOW Do Schools Fulfill Their Title IX Obligations?

Supportive Measures: *non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services** offered free of charge as appropriate and reasonably available, in order to restore equal access. Title IX Coordinator helps get these resources. Examples:

- Counseling
- Extension of deadlines
- Modification of work/class schedules
- Campus escort services
- Mutual restrictions on contact*
- Changes in housing/work locations
- Leaves of absence
- Increased security

When a Formal Complaint is filed, then school must respond by following grievance procedures that conform to the Regulations' requirements

Questions??

*Must NOT unreasonably burden the other party; remain confidential

Impartiality

- We all have biases, whether conscious or unconscious
  - ✗ <https://implicit.harvard.edu/implicit/>
  - ✗ <https://trustandjustice.org/resources/intervention/implicit-bias>
- Resist the urge to categorize
- Reflect critically on your own identity and experience
- Recognize when your identity and experience may affect your judgment
- Hold yourself accountable

Impartiality

- An impartial party puts aside one's preconceived beliefs or the urge to judge
- Listen equally to all sides and focus on understanding the viewpoints of all involved
  - ✗ Listening impartially to others takes time
  - ✗ Listening impartially requires awareness of one's own biases
  - ✗ Listening impartially means asking questions that open up dialogue, rather than close it down
- Strategies like summarizing what you have heard and reflecting back can help you avoid your biases and ensure you are correctly understanding the person you're questioning
- Acknowledge where differences between accounts/perspectives exist; rather than seek to smooth over differences, seek more details
- Take care that your words, tone of voice, and body language are neutral

1. Actual Knowledge

➤ Example:

A bus driver, on his daily route, nearly every day sees the same seventh grade girl get on at the third stop, and then two stops later, another seventh grade boy gets on and sits next to her. The first several times, she would get out of her seat and move away, but he would follow her or block her in to the seat. He appeared to be saying things that made her appear upset, but the driver couldn't hear what they were. After a few weeks, she stopped trying to move but would stare out the window and pull her sweatshirt up over most of her face when he sat down. The bus driver asks the girl if the boy is making her uncomfortable, and she says that every day, he says he wants to "hold her down and do what he wants with her," which makes her scared. After his route ends, the bus driver calls the school principal to tell her about this incident, and the principal relays the information to the Title IX Coordinator.

You are the Title IX Coordinator. What are your next steps, when you hear this report?

2. Formal Complaint

Requirements of Formal Complaint:

- A document (electronic or physical)
- Alleging sexual harassment, and
- Requesting an investigation
- EITHER:
  - Filed by a Complainant and signed by this individual [may not be anonymous]
  - OR
  - Signed by Title IX Coordinator. (see next slide)

Procedure for filing a Formal Complaint must be included in the school's Title IX policies that are "prominently displayed" on website and/or in Student and Employee Handbooks, along with Title IX Coordinator's contact information. Form may be provided via web portal.

2. Formal Complaint

➤ Formal Complaint triggers several possible responses:

1	Formal Complaint of allegations falling outside Title IX purview	School must dismiss complaint.	Supportive measures / no further action.
2	Formal Complaint of allegations falling within Title IX purview	Notice to all parties of allegations	Grievance procedures; begin investigation
3	Formal Complaint of allegations falling within Title IX purview	Notice to all parties of allegations	Parties mutually agree to informal resolution
4	Formal Complaint of allegations falling within Title IX purview	Notice to all parties of allegations	Emergency removal or administrative leave for Respondent

2. Formal Complaint

Potential Outcome #1: Dismissal

- If alleged conduct, even if proved 100% true, would not meet the definition of sexual harassment OR does not fit temporal or geographic scope of Title IX, then conduct falls outside of Title IX's purview and school must dismiss the complaint.
  - School can still choose to address in other ways, such as through Code of Conduct.
- School may choose to dismiss a complaint with allegations that fall within Title IX's purview, IF:
  - Complainant wants to withdraw Formal Complaint, or
  - Respondent leaves, or
  - School cannot gather sufficient evidence to reach a formal conclusion.
- Title IX Coordinator must provide written notice of dismissal and reasons to all involved parties
  - Complainant can choose to appeal dismissal.
- School can continue to provide supportive measures to Complainant.

2. Formal Complaint

Potential Outcome #2: Investigation Triggered Under Grievance Procedures

- If alleged conduct in Formal Complaint falls within Title IX purview, Title IX Coordinator must provide written notice to all parties who are known:
  - Notice of grievance process, including optional informal resolution process
  - Notice of the allegations of sexual harassment, including sufficient details for Respondent to prepare a response:
    - Identities of all involved parties, if known
    - Description of alleged conduct that meets Title IX definition of sexual harassment
    - Date/location of incident, if known
    - Statement that the Respondent is presumed innocent
  - Inform parties of their right to an advisor of their choice
  - Inform parties of their right to inspect/review ALL evidence
  - Inform parties of any provision in school's Code of Conduct that prohibits knowingly making false statements or submitting false information
- EITHER Investigation proceeds, OR parties agree to Informal Resolutions

2. Formal Complaint

Potential Outcome #3: Parties Opt for Informal Resolution

- Title IX Coordinator must first receive Formal Complaint and follow notice procedures to all parties, discussed on previous slide
- Requirements for Informal Resolution option:
  - CANNOT be compelled; parties must mutually agree
  - May be facilitated at any time before determination regarding responsibility reached under grievance procedures
  - Parties must provide written consent to informal resolution process
  - Before conclusion of informal resolution process, either party has the right to withdraw and return to grievance procedure; any information revealed during informal resolution process may be shared in the context of a renewed grievance procedure
- School CANNOT use informal resolution for allegations of an employee's sexual harassment of a student

2. Formal Complaint

Potential Outcome #3: Parties Opt for Informal Resolution

- Options for Informal Resolution
  - Restorative Justice
  - Mediation
  - Arbitration
  - Others . . . No specific format required
  - **Ensure that, before offering any informal resolution, those who will conduct it are extensively trained in effective techniques
- Informal Resolutions may reach agreements between the parties, facilitated by the school, that include measures similar to supportive measures for the Complainant, BUT they could also include disciplinary/punitive measures for the Respondent
- Regulations allow for flexibility of Informal Resolution approach

2. Formal Complaint

Potential Outcome #4: Emergency Removal and/or Administrative Leave, Pending Outcome of Investigation & Grievance Procedures

- Title IX Coordinator must first receive Formal Complaint and follow notice procedures to all parties, discussed on previous slide
- Emergency Removal only possible in very specific circumstances: School must undertake an individualized safety and risk analysis and determine:
  - An immediate threat
  - To the physical health and safety of any student or other individual
  - Arising from the allegations of sexual harassment.
- If school undertakes emergency removal, must provide Respondent with notice and an opportunity to challenge the removal immediately after removal occurs. [Consider IDEA, ADA, 504 implications for special education students]
- Administrative Leave: school may place an employee on administrative leave pending the outcome of a grievance process. [Consider obligations to your union employees.]

3. Investigation

- Burden on school, not parties, to gather evidence
- Cannot request evidence that would be legally privileged; parties can opt to waive this privilege
- Equal opportunity for parties to present witnesses
  - Fact
  - Expert
- Cannot restrict ability of either party to discuss allegations or to gather evidence
- Parties have equal opportunity to select advisors of their choice (may be attorney)
- Must provide notice to all parties of all hearings, interviews, and meetings to allow time to prepare
- Equal opportunity for parties to inspect/review any and all evidence so each party can meaningfully respond
  - Must send all evidence to parties before final report created
  - Must allow at least 10 days to respond

Trauma-Informed Response for Investigations

1. Understand the impact of trauma on a neurobiological, physical, and emotional level
2. Promote safety and support
3. Know positive ways to respond that avoid re-traumatization
4. Provide choice with a goal of empowerment

3. Investigation

How To Conduct Investigation

- Plan investigation scope and timeline (must be prompt)
- Identify and interview all involved parties
  - X Interview the Complainant and the Respondent (separately) about what happened; additional interviews may be needed as evidence is uncovered
  - X Ask open-ended questions about the incident(s) in the complaint
    - Pre-script standardized, open-ended questions, screened for neutral language
    - Allow time for follow-up questions, for more details
    - Do not use judgmental or projecting language in questions
    - Asking about how certain events made the interviewee feel is okay
    - Asking sensory questions may also help memory recall
  - X Ask each person for the names of potential witnesses for additional interviews
  - X Understand the trauma-informed approach to interviewing

40

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

3. Investigation

How To Conduct Investigation

- Gather any other relevant documentation available, such as documents, files, audio and video recordings, security camera footage, entry/exit logs, text messages, emails, social media posts, physical evidence, police reports, diary entries, etc.
  - X You cannot request privileged information, such as medical records, educational records, or correspondence between a party and their lawyer—but a person may voluntarily offer this information
  - X Think about what kinds of evidence could potentially corroborate the statements made in the interviews, and ask for if from interviewees
  - X If a search is necessary, remember it must comply with 4th Amendment rights
- Once compiled, send all evidence to Complainant and Respondent (and their advisors) with plenty of time—at least 10 days—to meaningfully respond
- Do not judge credibility of any parties or their statements, but document details that do/do not align with other parties' accounts and other evidence

41 | © Copyright Kitha Bouzek LLC

41

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

3. Investigation

Investigator(s) must create a final investigative report that fairly summarizes all the relevant evidence, without making a determination of responsibility.

It is not the investigator's job to determine credibility of parties, witnesses, or evidence. It is the investigator's job to gather the relevant evidence, and turn this over to the decision-maker to weigh credibility during next phase.

- Create categories of facts that parties agree on, and facts that are in dispute, without inserting your own judgment of what is true or false
- Must send full report to each party at least 10 days before any hearing
- Must send full report to the Decision-maker in advance of any hearing / opportunity for parties to question each other

At any time, Complainant has right to withdraw the Complaint.

At any time, parties can mutually agree to Informal Resolutions, as applicable.

3. Investigation

Example:

You are the Title IX Coordinator for a K-12 school district. You receive a formal complaint signed by a parent on behalf of his 16-year-old son, who is a member of the high school varsity diving team. The parent's complaint alleges that Coach Smith, who coaches both the girls' and boys' diving teams—as well as teaches world geography and is part of the teacher's union—has been texting photos of his genitalia to members of the boys' diving team, including to his son. Though the parent acknowledges that the phone number from which the texts originate is not the same as the cell phone on record for Coach Smith, the parent says that his son and his teammates feel like it couldn't be anyone else, because it has happened to three of them, the coach has the cell phone numbers for all the team members, and the boys think the coach looks at them "weird" when in the locker room.

Questions and Their Relevance

- Parties may only be asked relevant questions
  - Does it tend to make a fact more or less probable than without that information?
  - Is it likely to prove or disprove a fact or an allegation?
- Same standard for live hearing and for written opportunity to question

4. Hearing / Opportunity to Question

Questions and Their Relevance

- Parties may only be asked relevant questions
  - Legally privileged information cannot be used
  - No party's treatment records can be used without voluntary written consent
  - Questions about complainant's "prior sexual behavior or predisposition" are NOT relevant and must be excluded, UNLESS offered either 1) to prove someone else committed the alleged conduct, or 2) to prove consent, because it has to do with sexual behavior between complainant and respondent
    - **Prior consent to past sexual conduct does not imply future consent*

4a. Live Hearing

- Presided over by Decision-maker [individual or group]
- Must be direct, oral, live questioning of parties and witnesses, including cross-examination
  - May be facilitated by technology, as long as simultaneous
  - Parties may not directly ask questions; only advisors for parties
  - Advisors for parties must be able to ask opposing party and witnesses all relevant questions
  - If a party does not have an advisor, school must appoint one

4a. Live Hearing

Advisors Required—but Who?

- The Complainant and Respondent must both have an advisor
- Each has a right to select any advisor of their choice; may be an attorney (at their own expense) but does not have to be an attorney
- If a party does not have an advisor, school must appoint one.
- Advisor not required to do more than relay represented party's question to the other party/witnesses
- Advisors not required to be trained in any way
- Potential options?
  - Student affairs professionals trained on Title IX
  - Academic affairs professionals trained on Title IX
  - Human Resources representatives (as applicable)
- Recommend against appointing:

  - Attorneys from the school's Office of Legal Counsel

4a. Live Hearing

Technology

- Upon request of any party, must permit cross-examination to occur with the parties located in separate rooms with technology facilitating the ability of all participants to see and hear the person answering questions
  - **Testifying party must be seen and heard by all in real time, but testifying party does not have to be able to see all other parties
  - (i.e., if the Complainant is testifying, Complainant must have video/audio on, but Respondent does not have to be seen by Complainant)
- Hearings must still be recorded, or have a transcript of all testimony created, including when technology is used
- Ensure all staff have been trained on the technology in use
- Ensure technology used does not expose the testimony to anyone outside those participating in the hearing

4b. Opportunity to Question

For K-12 schools only, and only if there is no live hearing, then must provide an opportunity for each side to ask each other written questions:

- School must facilitate written back-and-forth:
  - Must provide the answers to all the questions requested
  - Must allow for additional, limited follow-up questions from each party
- Same rules about relevance as in previous slide
